postoffice order for five years' subscript- looking after business last week and we hope to soon number him because it is clean and unprejudiced, It returned to his home at snow- among the big cattle barons of sees the good in things without regard flake, Saturday. to the source or party from which it comes. I like The Star because it has convictions. of its own and has the courage to proclaim these conviction. It does not seem that The Staris seeking popularity, but that it is seeking the truth and the justice of all things. Its politics is good government. These things have made The Star popular. We would probably be safe in saying that the position taken and maintained by The Star is unipue . The Starought to be in evera home in the United States -T. C. Allen, Lockwook, Mo.
